About Fiddelium

Fiddelium is a nationally recognized youth fiddle ensemble from Nanaimo BC, and they are very grateful to create music on the traditional and unceded territory of the Snuneymuxw people.

Fiddelium was awarded a Canadian Folk Music Award in 2023 for their self-titled debut album, and their second album "Lit Up" was nominated for the same award in 2024. They have also won the CBC Music Class Challenge twice (2020 and 2021).

Fiddelium exists to give Vancouver Island youth musicians the opportunity to develop their playing to a professional level while also gaining important skills in performance, public speaking, leadership, and community engagement.
